

Sharing Kaltura Videos outside of D2L – Kaltura Tutorial

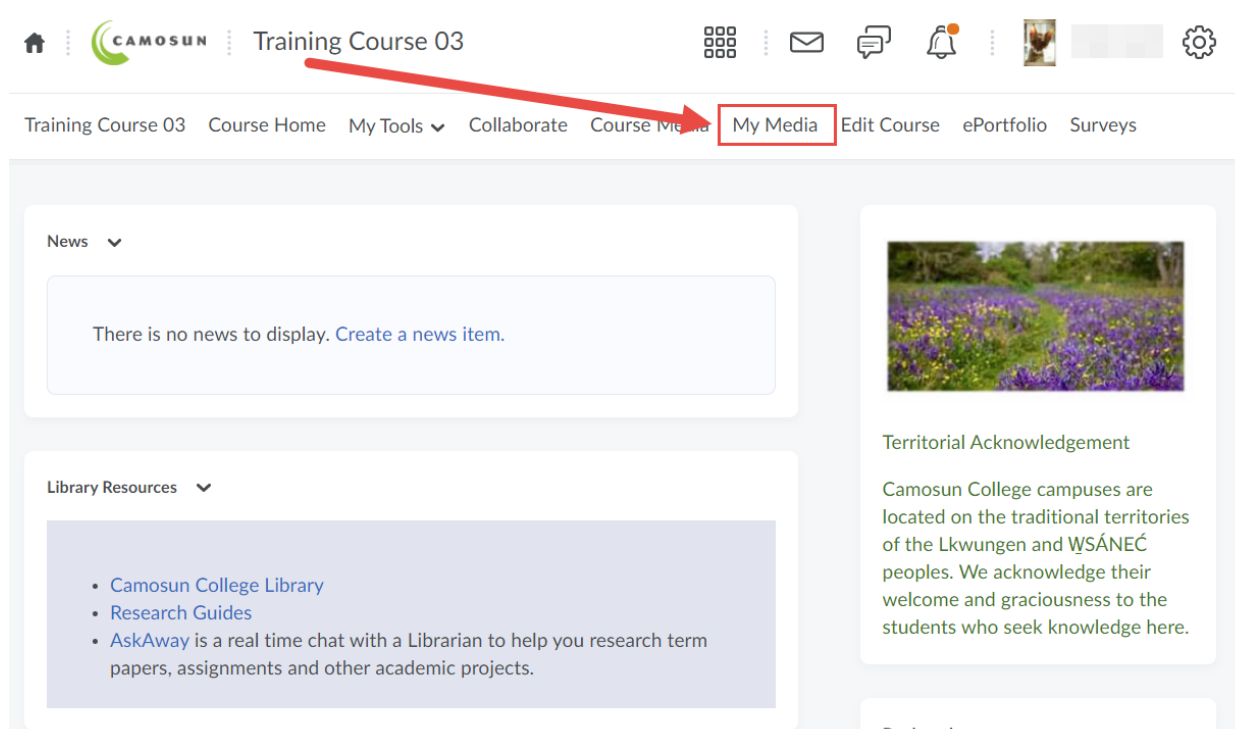

This tutorial is designed for faculty who have previous experience using D2L, who have uploaded media to My Media in D2L and shared to a Course Media gallery in a Master or DEV course site. For further information, please contact elearning@camosun.ca for assistance.

Scenario

This tutorial will cover the steps involved when you wish to share a Kaltura video stored in your My Media space in D2L, to someplace/someone outside of D2L. This will involve copying a URL for your video that someone could click on and open in a browser tab to view without needing to have access to your D2L course site.

Steps

1. Go to your D2L course and click My Media.

2. Click the title of the video you wish to share.

3. Scroll down and click the Share tab (note that you may need to click the Details tab first if your screen is small).

4. Within the Embed code, copy the part starting with https and ending before width (NOT including the quotation marks) and you will have a hyperlink of the video you can send out or post somewhere outside of D2L. See the highlighted section in the image here for an example of what to copy.
